LNP Media Group
101 North Queen Street
Lancaster, PA
lnpmediagroup.com

For nearly 158 years and four generations, the Steinman family of Lancaster owned and operated what today is LNP Media Group. LNP Media Group comprises three local newspapers, a news website, and a marketing agency. LNP Media Group's daily newspaper is LNP which, with its companion site LancasterOnline.com, is Lancaster County's top source of news and information. The other two publications are The Ephrata Review and The Lititz Record, hyper-local weekly newspapers.

Founded by educators in 1963, WITF has been an essential part of the civic, educational and cultural fabric of the Central Pennsylvania region for over 60 years. WITF operates a non-commercial television station in Harrisburg, and the region's NPR radio station WITF-FM (89.5).

Starting in July 2023, LNP Media Group and WITF — two vibrant, local institutions — marked a new era: Steinman Communications, which is owned by the Steinman family, gifted LNP Media Group and its publications to WITF as a capstone to the family's two centuries of community service and philanthropy. Together, WITF and LNP Media Group are creating a new mission-driven and sustainable model for local news and strategic marketing for local businesses. With their partners at WITF, LNP Media Group will continue to provide highly effective marketing and advertising solutions in print and online to businesses throughout the region.
